

GREEN ELLSWORTH
invites you to attend the Union River Watershed Summit
Back to the Future

May 15, 4:00-6:30PM, On zoom
Watershed Management Models, Challenges & Opportunities
(register here: <https://uregina-ca.zoom.us/j/9456789012>)

May 16, 9:30AM-4:00PM, In-person, only
Moore Community Center, 125 State Street, Ellsworth
Coffee & Muffins, Displays, Free Lunch
Bird and Fish Tour along the Riverwalk
Opening Keynote, May 16, 10:00AM
“Wechkotekuk and a Penobscot Sense of Place”
James Francis, Tribal Historian, Penobscot Nation

May 17, 11:00AM Union River Race/Paddle—Start
From Below Graham Lake Dam to Harbor Marina

Other Speakers/Participants
Nicole Grohoski, Maine Senator; Chuck Loring, Director Natural Resources,
Penobscot Nation; Regina Bushong, Orland Select Board; Jeff Reardon,
American Salmon Federation; Aaron Miller, Abbe Museum; Dwayne Shaw,
Downeast Salmon Federation; Austin Schuver, Frenchman Bay Conservancy

Sponsors
Franklin Savings Bank
Downeast Salmon Federation, Frenchman Bay Conservancy, Hancock County
Soil and Water Conservation District

Full summit schedule, more information and a registration link go to:
<https://www.greenellsworth.org/community-events> or call 667-8878

