Mandatory Policies and Procedures

In accordance with Maine law and our commitment to transparency, the Ellsworth Police Department has made its Maine Criminal Justice Academy Mandatory Policies and Procedures available to the public.

Certain portions of these policies have been redacted where necessary to protect confidential intelligence and investigative information, law enforcement tactics, security plans, and other information exempt from disclosure under Maine law. The policies are intended to provide the public with insight into the department's operations, standards, and expectations while maintaining the safety and effectiveness of law enforcement operations.
